Champion's Pilot Says Championship Battle Will Draw Two Million Dollar Gate and the Title Holder Is Entitled to Half of Receipts for His Power as Drawing Card—Harry Wills Must Beat Better Men Than He Has Been Meeting to Earn Title Bout with Dempsey —Timely Gossip of the Ring

By TOM S. ANDREWS
(Noted Sports Writer and Boxing Critic)

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Will the next purse for the heavyweight championship of the world touch the unheard sum of over $1,000,000? The indications point that way, in fact it is almost a certainty that Tex Rickard, if he has not already been apprised of the fact, will soon be made aware of the conditions on which Champion Jack Dempsey will defend his title next summer.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, has spoken and he is authority for the statement that Dempsey's end for the next title match will have to be around the $1,000,000 mark and not $300,000 as has been suggested by some.

This news will probably be staggering to Tex Rickard and the Ringling Brothers, who are interested with Tex, but the promoter of championship matches will have to grin and bear it.

Jack Kearns thinks no more of talking in millions now than he did in dollars and cents a few years ago. "Debonair Jack" was just emerging from the magnificent apartment building, owned by Dempsey and himself, and he felt like an extra million in the warm sun.

"No more matches for the champion until next summer" we ventured, as Jack adjusted his new headgear.

"No chance for anything like that," said Jack "It will be a rest from now on, although we make take a trip to Europe and do some work at the music halls."

"Well, Jack, a fight will mean another $300,000 or $400,000 apartment building for the champion and yourself here," we ventured again.

"What," retorted Kearns, "$300,000 for our next championship battle! Well now just forget that small stuff. It will be $1,000,000 for the champ next start and nothing less. Dempsey is the card and if the match will draw $2,000,000, which it undoubtedly will, why shouldn't we get half of it? No, Kitty, it will be one big million for the champ and yours truly the next start, and what is more they will come across without any fuss either."

Kearns said he did not care who might be developed for the champion to meet. They all look alike to him, including Firpo, Carpentier, Jack Renault, the latest sensation, or any other heavyweight in the world.

From reports reaching here it will not be surprising if Rickard builds a new arena in New York, or near the big city, seating close to 100,000 people, for he realized that another Dempsey-Firpo match will draw that many people close to New York. With such a crowd it can easily be seen that the receipts would run around the $2,000,000 mark and possibly over. And two years ago when Dempsey and Carpentier drew a little over $1,600,000 we thought the limit had been reached and passed in purses and gate receipts. It sure is a fast pace the people are traveling in all lines of endeavor these days!

JACK KEARNS
Manager of Jack Dempsey, who says Champion will demand million dollars for his next ring battle.

Experience vs. Youth

The boxing game is beginning to sizzle again around the East and Middle West. The veterans refuse to step aside for the younger boxers, and in many cases they are right, for the youngsters cannot always depend on their youth and strength. Experience is a great factor and it probably saved Mike McTigue when he met Young Stribling at Columbus, Ga., recently. However, Stribling will not be side-tracked, for he has applied to the New York commission for permission to fight in that state, his object being to get at McTigue again or with the top-notchers. He is only 18 years of age. The commission rules state that a boxer, to engage in more than six rounds, must be 21. The youngster must have the confidence for he did not ask McTigue to meet him again in Georgia, but went direct to Mike's own back yard and threw down the gauntlet to him. A lad of that stamp is bound to succeed.

Dundee Keeps His Pep

Johnny Dundee, only 30 years of age, has taken part in probably more battles than any of the present day fighters, and now he plans to take a trip around part of the world and engage in at least one fight a week over a period of twenty-four weeks. Johnny is one of the greatest little fighters developed during the past three decades and is a credit to the game. He has never bothered about weights, meeting all comers from feathers to welterweights. And at the age that most fighters retire Johnny wins the world's championship in the featherweight class. Some boy!

Wills Must Do Better

Harry Wills, the Brown Panther as they call him, got into print again last week when he stopped a big colored fellow named Jack Thompson in short order. Wills must have been pretty well acquainted with Thompson for he has battled him at least eight different times—the first meeting being about eight years ago. He stopped Thompson once in nine rounds, fought him about three no decision contests, won from him in 10 and twice had the referee declare them "no contests," one of them going three and the other five rounds. That would indicate that the terrible Jack Thompson was not so much after all. The fans have been asking for a Dempsey-Wills match, but it seems a certainty that if Wills ever gets a crack at the title it will not be until he has proven his superiority over Firpo and some other good heavyweight. The colored man sure did make a bad mess of it when he tried to stop the Dempsey-Firpo match.

Tom Gibbons Gets Offer

Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, who gave Champion Jack Dempsey the longest fight of his career, may engage in a big contest at Phoenix, Ariz., some time during the winter season. Who his opponent will be is not certain at this time, but offers have been made to get Dempsey and also Georges Carpentier.

A. E. Santwier, automobile representative, has an agreement with Tommy Gibbons to meet any man he may select, at a new arena to be erected at Phoenix, any time before next May. The agreement was entered into by Tommy Gibbons and Eddie Kane, his manager, when they were visiting in Los Angeles a few weeks ago. Santwier is representing a group of Arizona and Los Angeles sportsmen who are interested in the new Stadium at Phoenix, which will be used for big football matches, baseball, boxing and sports of all kinds. It is planned to have seating capacity for between 40,000 and 50,000 people.

An offer of $100,000 guarantee with an additional 20 per cent of the gross receipts was made to Champion Jack Dempsey for another meeting with Gibbons, but it can be stated now that the champion will not accept it. Another match in prospect is one between Gibbons and Georges Carpentier, the French star, who recently knocked out Joe Beckett, the English champion, in one round. Tex Rickard is after this match for Madison Square Garden, New York, but he will have to bid high to get it as Santwier has already made a bid of over $125,000 for the same. That would mean close to $65,000 each for the principals. Still another match considered would bring Gibbons and Jack Renault together, but it is believed that Rickard has the Canadian tied up for the present. Mike McTigue, light heavyweight champion, is also being sought, but it is not believed that Mike will accept a match with Gibbons. Harry Greb may be secured for a match with some coast middleweight, possibly Bert Colima or Jimmy Delaney of St. Paul, at 170 pounds.

At any rate Phoenix is liable to be put on the map in a boxing way before the winter season ends. Tom Kennedy, who met all the heavyweights in the land in New York a decade ago, and who is now managing the Hollywood Legion shows here, is interested with Santwier in promoting the Phoenix affair.

Delaney Outclasses Burke

Martin Burke, the New Orleans light heavyweight (really 185 lbs.) and now under Jimmy Dunn of Cleveland, O., put up some great battles over the 15 and 20-round route in the south, but as a four-round star he did not prove very successful at Jack Doyle's Vernon arena. Martin met Jimmy Delaney, the rising St. Paul star, and the latter boxed rings around him. In a long distance fight Burke would no doubt do much better; in fact he would prove a tough customer, but at the short distance Delaney had it by a big margin. Johnny O'Donnell, another St. Paul youth, made life miserable for Joe Layman, a local lightweight, whom he battered around the ring for four rounds, but could not stop him. O'Donnell has the class and seems to be getting better with each start.

Better Than Firpo

Reports from Lima, Peru, say that Luis Firpo, the South American champion, was given a reception by 9,000 Peruvians when he appeared in an exhibition with his sparring partner. Luis, it is further stated, was disappointed because there were not more who would pay the high price of admission to see him in action. Probably Luis was still thinking about the 90,000 who watched him go down before Jack Dempsey at the

Jim Jeffries is Sought to Teach Firpo How to Use His Left Hand

Tex Rickard requests former heavyweight champion to tour country with South American challenger and help prepare him for another shot at Jack Dempsey

BY SAM HALL
(Boxing Expert, Los Angeles Examiner)

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Bill Pickens, Los Angeles promoter of national acquaintance and renown, is the Tex Rickard emissary out this way for a proposed tour that will feature Luis Angel Firpo, the "Wild Bull of the Pampas," and James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion of the world.

It was known before Firpo fought Dempsey that Rickard thought the South American giant would be the next title-holder. It is now known that Tex still has such a hunch, but realizes that something must be done in the way of improving Firpo as a boxer and scientific fighter before he can accomplish the downfall of an all-around fighter like the champion.

Rickard all along has wanted Jeffries to come out of California long enough to show Firpo how he (Jeffries) fought his way to the crown with a left hand that he was taught to use. Tommy Ryan, great fighter of other days, was the man generally given credit for teaching Jeffries a crouching attack from which he used a left hand that whipped Jim Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons and Tom Sharkey and Gus Ruhlin and others.

Jeffries without that crouch and that left would not have been a great fighter, the oldtime experts assert. Tex Rickard and Bill Pickens think that Firpo can be taught to use the left just as Jeffries was taught and that when he becomes expert with the southpaw he will be the greatest fighter of all time.

So Rickard knows Pickens is trying to induce Jeffries to go on a public tour with Firpo while teaching Louie how he was taught to use a left. Jeffries out at Burbank is considering the proposition. Pickens thinks he will consent to go over the country with Firpo and help develop that dead left of Louie's while so doing.

There was some talk of Firpo fighting Harry Wills at Buenos Aires in March, but Pickens thinks that is all off now. Firpo stopped off on the way home to box in Peru and there is a report that he will return to America in time to tour with Jeffries in January.

The deal is not fixed up yet by any means but it is very much on the fire. Firpo has everything except a left and Jeffries may give him that asset.

The pair would prove a big attraction around the country. Rickard, it is said, believes more people went to see Firpo fight Dempsey than went to see Dempsey fight Firpo.

The noted promoter considers Firpo, the biggest sort of an attraction despite his upset at the champ's hands in September.

Pickens expects to have a favorable answer from Jeffries within a short time. If Jeff says "Yes" the tour has a fine chance of being on with Rickard's hearty approval.

Tex thinks it will be easy to line up Firpo.

Chicago Boxing Notes

CHICAGO—A monster amateur boxing tournament is scheduled to take place at the Arcade Gymnasium here December 1. This will be the state elimination contests that will decide the boxers who will be picked to go to New York to box at Madison Square Garden next month the winner of these bouts being picked to make the Olympic games at Paris, France, next summer. Kid Howard Carr, proprietor of the Arcade gym, expects a capacity crowd to witness Chicago's "Simon Pures" in action. Charley Woods, Central A. A. U. 118-pound champion is favorite to win the laurels in his division.

* * *

Joey Kaufman, former international amateur bantamweight champion, has made good here and critics have stamped him as a great prospect in the ranks of the pros. In his last three starts here Kaufman won over Ray Miller, of Rock Island, Jimmy McCague and Monk Kelly. Joey is now under the direction of Nessie Blumenthal, popular West Side sportsman who has lined up a series of important bouts for his battler.

* * *

Sailor Friedman, Chicago's leading contender for the lightweight and junior welterweight championships, has started hard training for his bout with Bobby Barret, the Lieperville fighter, at the Philadelphia Ice Palace, December 29. Friedman is serious now and intends to fight his way to a title match with Benny Leonard next summer.

* * *

Joey Boyle, local flyweight, who has fought Herbie Schaeffer, Delos Kid Williams, Ray Jeffries, Ray Miller and a host of others, is anxious to make a real comeback after a six month lay off. Boyle is a corking two-fisted little battler who never fails to please the fans. Joey is a real contender for the flyweight title as he can easily make the limit of 110 pounds at 3 o'clock the day of the contest.

Breezy Broadway Boxing Bits

By Arthur T. Lumley

THIS state needs a censor to pass upon all important matches.

* * *

William A. Brady is advocating a stage censorship for evil plays.

* * *

Why not a censorship for evil bouts?

* * *

Mr. Muldoon loves to lecture and suspend poor, helpless boxers for some trivial offense.

* * *

And pass over the big evils that are so detrimental to the manly sport.

* * *

But the coming session of the Legislature will have something to say about the ridiculous way boxing has been conducted in this state.

* * *

Now that the Republicans have gained a substantial majority in the Assembly.

* * *

Wait and watch for the boxing bombshell at Albany this winter.

* * *

If a legislative investigating committee is appointed—Wow! Wow!

* * *

Some queer doings and inside tales may be revealed.

* * *

Maybe the legislature may install a worthy boxing censorship to clean up the good old sport.

* * *

Many of the wise Broadway sharpshooters imagine that Harry Wills has lost his effective punch.

* * *

Because he hit Jack Thompson about 1,000 times without a real clean K. O.

* * *

Some of the profound experts declare that Jack Dempsey has nothing to fear from the Brown Panther.

* * *

But maybe the cute Mr. Wills is saving his K. O. sock for the champion.

* * *

It looks indeed as if the husky, dusky contender is playing possum.

* * *

There's no doubt, however, but what his hands are apt to crack in a tough fracas.

* * *

And that's the reason Harry is so careful about lambasting an ordinary opponent about the head.

* * *

Can anyone imagine Jim Buckley as the gay and festive proprietor of a big cabaret cafe?

* * *

But he is jazzing away every night off Broadway in the "Roaring Forties."

* * *

"When Muldoon called us managers parasites I got out of the boxing game. Sure, not half of the managers were ever in Paris," exclaimed Mr. Buckley in disgust.

* * *

Attended a meeting of the National Sports Alliance recently.

* * *

It was a fine comic show full of motions and oratory.

* * *

There was more motions offered by the debating members than Harry Greb makes in a ten-round muss.

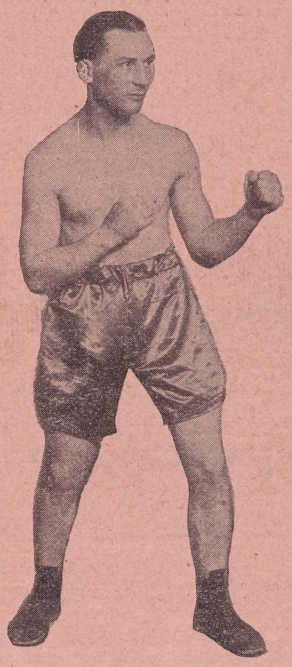
With speeches galore by such philosophical orators as Dick Butler, Charley Harvey, Dan McKetrick, Charley White, Andy Neideritter, etc., etc.



BENNY LEONARD

President Catina resigned his exalted position about five times during the sessions, but finally reconsidered his resignation.

The Alliance intend running a big boxing show again for the benefit of the organization.

It would take three pages of the Boxing Blade to describe all the comedy enacted at one of the meetings of the Alliance.

* * *

Some of the overworked demon press agents are resting in the observation ward after a most excruciating open air season.

* * *

Drawing too deep on one's imagination is apt to give the best of us woozy brainstorms and strange hallucinations.

It seems that most of the champions are getting outside of the three-mile limit.

Self protection is the first law of Nature, and perhaps the champs are not wise to that.

* * *

Arthur Yende, the genial secretary of Leo Millionaire Flynn, is losing weight and sleep counting his employer's money.

* * *

Frank Marlow, the popular manager of Johnny Wilson and other fistic stars, has opened up a gorgeous cabaret off Broadway.

* * *

Cabarets seem to be a favorite side issue for some of the pugilistic managers along the Great White Way.

* * *

Every day they smash many heads and bones in college football games.

* * *

If this rough stuff should happen in the ring how the puritanical cranks would howl.

* * *

Billy Roche, the veteran referee, will spend the winter at Tia Juana, picking the winners, if lucky.

* * *

Billy may also referee a few boxing bouts there for Jim Coffroth.

* * *

There's considerable chatter about Benny Leonard and Lew Tendler boxing a third match at Tia Juana this winter.

* * *

If so it will be a pipe for Benny as Lew is slipping away back.

* * *

Pat Kyne, of the Exclusive Supper Club, is one of the most enthusiastic fight fans along Broadway.

* * *

So is his business and social pal, John J. Mulligan.

* * *

There's no street in the whole world where there's more up-to-date, tobasco fight fans than on the Great White Way.

* * *

All day and all night long they talk and bet on fights and fighters galore.

From multimillionaires down to bootblacks! Even the flappers have the fistic craze nowadays.

Ring Fiascos Caused by Boxers Falling Through Ropes Should Be Lesson to Promoters

BY WILLIAM H. ROCAP
(Sports Editor Philadelphia Public Ledger)

ONE would think that St. Paul, Minn., the home of Mike and Tom Gibbons, would make few mistakes when it comes to handling boxing contests. It seems, however, the promoters are lax on ring construction. Twice in one month boxers fell through the ropes and outside of the ring on the floor and the bouts had an unsatisfactory ending. On October 19, Tillie Herman, of California, and Jimmy Jones, Youngstown, were to have boxed ten rounds. In the first round both went through the ropes. George Barton, the referee, began to count. Jones climbed back at the count of six. Herman could not get back before the count of ten. Jones was awarded the decision on a technical knockout. Herman claimed that his back was so injured he could not get back in the ring before ten had been tolled off.

Fans who saw fewer than two minutes of fighting stormed the box office and demanded their money back. They had not forgotten the Jones-Billy Wells bout in the same ring two weeks before, which ended in precisely the same manner.

It would appear from this distance that the ropes of the ring are too far apart or that there is not sufficient platform extension beyond the ropes. Minnesota has been on the grill during the last year. Opponents of boxing have seized every opportunity to pick flaws in the sport. Promoters and those having the best interests of the game at heart should get busy and surround it with every safeguard. It should be a lesson to those in the East. Make the rings safe. Suppose a row of seats must be sacrificed. The loss would be nil when compared to the distress caused by having some good boxer permanently injured.

United States Now Holds All Ring Titles

EVERY ring title now belongs to the United States.

Champions in all divisions are:

Flyweight—Pancho Villa, Manila, Philippine Islands.

Bantamweight—Joe Lynch, New York.

Featherweight—Johnny Dundee, New York.

Lightweight — Benny Leonard, New York.

Junior Welterweight (140 lbs.)—Pinky Mitchell, Milwaukee.

Welterweight—Mickey Walker, Newark, N. J.

Middleweight — Harry Greb, Pittsburgh.

Light Heavyweight—Mike McTigue, a native of Ireland but an American citizen.

Heavyweight — Jack Dempsey, Manassa, Colo.

This is the first time in many years when all the ring titles stayed in the United States Jimmy Wilde of England, original flyweight champion, beat all contenders for several years and would have been champion still but for his age. Freddy Welsh won the lightweight title from Willie Ritchie in England. Jem Bowker won the bantamweight title from Frankie Neil in London before that. No championship above the lightweight has been held in England for a generation back.

Georges Carpentier took one championship back to France when he knocked out Battling Levinsky here. Eugene Criqui won a world title when he knocked out Johnny Kilbane, but quickly lost it to Dundee. Charlie Ledoux gave Kid Williams a hard fight for the bantam honors but lost. Aside from these few invaders have made any disturbance among the American ring champions of late.

The only ring title held in America that is in doubt at present is the light heavyweight won from Battling Siki. McTigue hardly measures up to championship class.

BOXING NEWS

JIM DELANEY PROVES MASTER OF MARTIN BURKE

Los Angeles, Calif.—Fighting like a champion, Jim Delaney, St. Paul light heavyweight, defeated Martin Burke, New Orleans heavyweight, in the main event of four rounds at Jack Doyle's Vernon arena, November 6. Burke clinched time after time when it seemed that Delaney's clean hitting was likely to become dangerous and so saved himself from much punishment.

The crowd was with Delaney and when he came to the front in the third round with clean rights and lefts the boys came to their feet shouting for blood. But Burke is too old a hand to be caught so easily and he protected himself well. Delaney had a shade in this round, though. The final round was all Delaney and the decision was a good one.

On strength of his defeat of Burke, Delaney was matched to meet Bert Colima, coast middleweight champion, at Vernon, November 13.

Johnny O'Donnell, St. Paul lightweight and stablemate of Delaney, under Mike Gibbons and Mike Collins, won the referee's decision over Joe Layman, local Mexican battler, in a fast bout.

O'Donnell and Stewart McLean, another Gibbons-Collins boy, will also have a place on the card at the Delaney-Colima show.

Other results at Vernon November 6th were:

Eddie Conrad won decision over Soldier Brown.

Ray Jeffries won decision over Leo Dunbar.

Jack Griffin knocked out Red Burger.

Jack Fowler won decision over Maxey Green.

California Joe Lynch won decision over Ad Rubidoux.

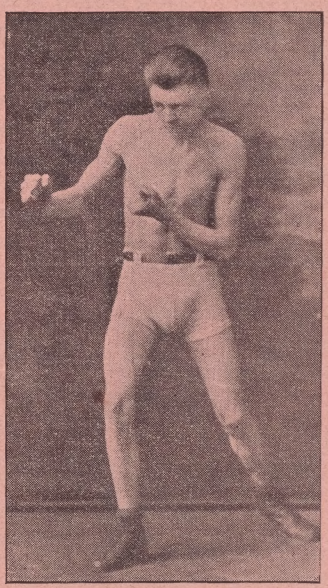
TED LEWIS OUTPOINTS FRED ARCHER IN LONDON

London, England.—Ted Lewis, welterweight champion of England, defeated Fred Archer on points in a twenty-round contest here Nov. 8. The fight took place at Premierland, White Chapel.

PLAN BIG AMATEUR BOXING MEET IN N. Y.

New York.—Amateur boxers representing Pittsburgh, Boston and New Haven have been invited to oppose New York's contingent of simon pures in an inter-city ring tournament at Madison Square Garden, under the auspices of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union. Boxers will compete for honors in seven classes, ranging from flyweights to light heavyweights.



YOUNG VAN NESS
Jackson, Mich., flyweight who finished second in Boxing Blade contest to select most popular contender for Pancho Villa's title. Van Ness received 23,400 votes.

RENAULT REFUSES OFFER TO FIGHT HARRY WILLS

New York.—Prospects of a match soon between Jack Renault and Harry Wills at Madison Square Garden virtually disappeared when Promoter Tex Rickard announced he had dropped negotiations, for the present.

Rickard began efforts to land the match soon after Renault's knockout victory over Floyd Johnson, seeking it as a charity affair to be held around Christmas. The Canadian heavyweight however, turned down Rickard's offer, asking for more time before opposing the "Brown Panther," while Wills also displayed no eagerness for the match.

PINKY MITCHELL WINS OVER SID BARBARIAN

Detroit, Mich.—Pinky Mitchell of Milwaukee successfully defended his junior welterweight title against Sid Barbarian here Nov. 6. Pinky took seven of the ten rounds. Barbarian, driven to desperation, went out and won the seventh, eighth and ninth. It was a wonderful fight and while Mitchell won, proving that he is a real junior welterweight champion, Barbarian must be given credit. The Detroit lightweight stood up and fought Pinky. He lost, but he fought back and 9,000 rabid fans stood and cheered the fighters.

It was one of the best fights that has been staged in Detroit for years. Much of the time the boys stood toe to toe and slugged. Mitchell was better in the most of the rounds. He retained his welterweight title, but not by such a margin, that a return fight would not be interesting. If these boys meet again, they should pack any kind of a house.

Pinky won the first five rounds easily. The sixth was about even. Barbarian had to come to life to make it anything but a one-sided bout and he sure gave Pinky a battle in the sixth. The round was about even.

Barbarian then went out and won the next three. He battered Pinky badly in these rounds, the seventh, eighth and ninth, but Pinky came back in time to take the tenth and the fight.

Barbarian is a lightweight and Pinky the junior welterweight champion. The fight was for the junior welterweight championship since the weights were 140 pounds, the junior welterweight limit.

Barbarian weighed 138 and Mitchell 140.

PAT WALSH WINS FROM DAVE ROSENBERG ON FOUL

New York.—Pat Walsh, of Cincinnati, won from Dave Rosenberg on a foul in the fifth round of their scheduled 10-round bout here Nov. 6. The referee charged Rosenberg with using the back of his glove. Walsh had gone down for the count of nine twice previous to the bout being stopped.

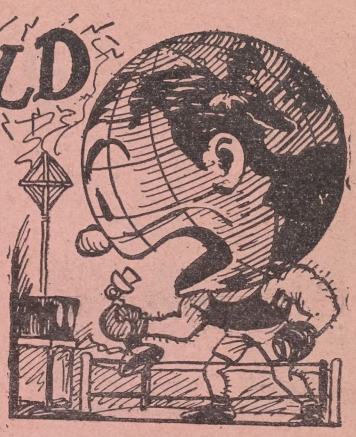
RUSSIE LE ROY TO MEET ROSCOE HALL AT FARGO

Fargo, N. D.—Russie Le Roy, Fargo lightweight, and Roscoe Hall, Des Moines, lightweight champion of Iowa, will meet for the fourth time when they feature a card here November 23, Jack Hurley, promoter, announced. Hall has won a decision over Le Roy in each of their former bouts, the first at Des Moines and the other two at Sioux Falls.

OF THE WORLD



BARRY AND SMITH LINE UP CLASSY STABLE

Atlanta, Ga.—Duke Barry and Ben Smith, both veteran handlers and managers of boxers, who are now located here, have rounded up one of the classiest stable of boxers in the South.

In the aggregation are: Red Herring, lightweight champion of the South; Jimmy Finley, welterweight champion of the land o' Dixie; Larry Avera and Fearless Ferns, two of Atlanta's leading lightweights; Battling Petrozio, welterweight champion of the Fourth Army Corps, and "Irish Benny" Pledger, the new kayo sensation of Atlanta. Benny is a junior lightweight.

Herring recently defeated Kayo Jeakle of Toledo, Ohio, and Frankie Jones, the California welter. Finley is the busiest fighter in the South at present. Ferns and Avera have been traveling at top speed, each having disposed of two opponents in as many weeks.

Barry and Smith are a strong managerial combination and they appear to have a stable of consistent winners.

BENNY LEONARD SAYS HE IS TO FIGHT MICKEY WALKER

St. Louis, Mo.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion here on an exhibition tour, announced arrangements were being made for a bout between Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, and himself. The bout probably will be next summer at a location not yet decided on, Leonard said.

Fists So Large Special Gloves Are Needed for Big Munn

Sioux City, Iowa.—Tom Brislane, local fight impresario, is having difficulty in finding gloves to fit the hands of Big Al Munn, who is to box Jack Clifford of St. Paul here on the night of November 16. The local boxer has a hand that requires a glove about twice the ordinary size, so a special order has been sent to a glove maker on the Pacific coast for a pair of the required weight. About the only thing Munn can buy ready-made is a handkerchief.

MIKE McTIGUE CANCELS BOUT WITH GENE TUNNEY

New York.—Mike McTigue, light-heavyweight champion of the world, has cancelled his fight with Gene Tunney, the American champion, split with his manager, Joe Jacobs and created an opportunity for his worst enemy, Young Stribling, the Georgia high school boy, to fight Tunney in Madison Square Garden.

McTigue said the bruised knuckle, which was his reason for trying to cancel his fight with Stribling in Columbus, Ga., several weeks ago had begun to bother him again. For that reason he decided not to keep his engagement with Tunney Dec. 10.

If Tex Rickard can procure a waiver of the six-round limit on juvenile fighters he will give Stribling the date with Tunney.

DEMPSEY GETS OFFER TO FIGHT TOM GIBBONS AGAIN

Los Angeles.—An offer of $100,000 and 20 per cent of the gate receipts to meet Tom Gibbons for a ten-round bout at Phoenix, Ariz., in February was tendered Champion Jack Dempsey by A. E. Santweir, representative of a group of Los Angeles and Hollywood sportsmen. Santweir just had returned from Arizona where he made arrangements for staging the affair.

Gibbons already has accepted the terms, Santweir said, and Phoenix sportsmen have agreed to enlarge the state fair grounds stadium to hold 60,000. The offer called for staging the bout between February 20 and 28.

Santweir will open Phoenix as a fight city Christmas day with Jimmy Delaney of St. Paul and an unselected opponent, while Gibbons will meet Georges Carpentier or Mike McTigue, light heavyweight champion, before engaging with Dempsey.

JOHNNY FARR STOPS TEDDY SILVA IN 4TH

San Francisco.—Johnny Farr of this city stopped Teddy Silva of Los Angeles in the final session of a four-round bout at Oakland, Nov. 7, and thereby earned the right to be called the bantamweight champion of the Pacific Coast. The bout ended in the fourth round at the instigation of Referee Shand. Silva was in a bad way at the time. He was all but out on the floor part way out of the ring as a result of Farr's merciless body attack and a succession of rights to the jaw.

In the semi-windup Jack Silver won a decision over Tommy Cello. The local Hebrew made his usual clever battle, flooring Cello for the count of nine in the third and having the better of the going in every round.

Other results were: Teddy O'Hara won a decision over Jack McCabe, Dynamite Murphy won a decision over Teddy Seidman. George Gibbons scored a technical knockout over Johnny Rustin in the second. Eddie Phillips shaded Artie Simmons. Tommy Sims defeated Eddie Haddon.

Bill Brennan Suspended in Nebraska and Purse Given to Charity After Alleged Poor Showing

Omaha, Neb.—Billy Miske, St. Paul heavyweight, knocked out Bill Brennan in the fourth round of their 10-round bout here November 7th. It was the first fight either man had participated in for several months.

Brennan did not appear to be in condition. After being warned by Referee Shea at the end of the second round to display more action, Brennan rushed his St. Paul opponent in the third round, and fell into a clinch. Miske hooked him with a right jab to the jaw and Brennan reeled around the ring, falling in his own corner as the gong sounded.

The fourth round was brief. Brennan, still dazed, walked to the center of the ring, where he was met by a right to the jaw, and was counted out.

The weights were announced as Brennan, 206; Miske, 189.

In the semi-windup, Morrie Schlaifer, Omaha welterweight, dispatched Harry Summers of Oakland, Calif., with a half dozen right and left swings to the head in the first minute of fighting. The referee stopped the bout when it was evident Summers was unable to continue.

Battling Munro of Kansas City, scored a technical knockout over Joe Stangl of Omaha, in the second round. They are heavyweights.

Following the Fight, Brennan and Summers were suspended by the Nebraska Boxing Commission on charges of not trying and of making a poor showing. Brennan's purse of $1,809 was turned over to charity. Summer's money was held pending further investigation.

STRIBLING CAN'T FIGHT OVER 6 ROUNDS IN N. Y.

New York.—Young Stribling, the 18 year old schoolboy boxer of Macon, Ga., lost his appeal for a license to box 15 rounds in New York state and left town with his father, who is his manager, homeward bound and disappointed.

Although Stribling passed a physical examination by the commission's physician, though his record includes a 15-round bout in Havana a few months ago, Commissioner William Muldoon refused to waive the rule which limits minors to six rounds in this state.

"Why don't you box six rounds?" Muldoon asked. "You can get plenty of work here at that distance."

"I'm not a six-round fighter," Stribling said.

He is to box Joe Egan in Boston on Nov. 21.

Tex Rickard was ready to match Stribling with Johnny Wilson of Boston, former middleweight champion, or to sign the Georgia youth to substitute for Mike McTigue against Gene Tunney in a bout scheduled December 10. The promoter's plans are held up, however, by the commission's action.

JOE PAGLINA KNOCKS OUT EDDIE DYER

Louisville, Ky.—Joe Paglina, local featherweight, knocked out Eddie Dyer of Terre Haute, Ind., after one minute's fighting in the second round of a scheduled 12-round bout here Nov. 12. Dyer defeated Lew Silvers here two weeks ago and was a favorite to beat Paglina.

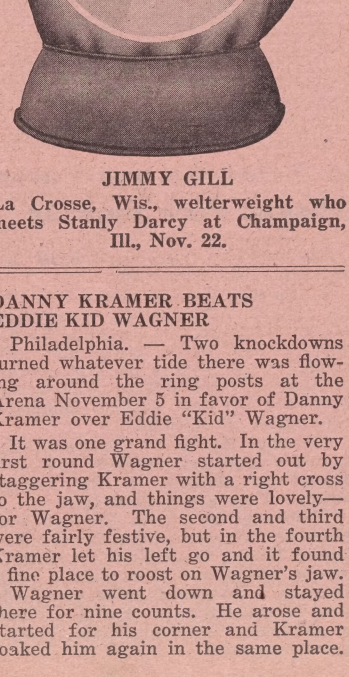
FIRPO INVITED TO FIGHT SEVEN-FOOT INDIAN GIANT

Buenos Aires, Argentine, S. A.—Luis Angel Firpo, the "wild bull of the Pampas," has been invited to fight a Bolivian Indian giant, who in makeup is declared to resemble the descriptions given by the naturalists of the "ape man." With a height of seven feet, two inches, and an arm spread of eight feet, together with a formidable punch and great agility, the giant is said to be a perfect specimen of the natural fighting man.

According to a dispatch to La Nacion from La Paz, Bolivia, the newspapers have published a challenge from the trainer of the giant, who is an Indian named Camacho. He offers to fight Firpo six rounds when Firpo arrives in La Paz on his way to his home in Buenos Aires.

Camacho is 23 years old. He towers one foot above Firpo and in reach has an advantage of almost a foot and a half over the Argentine. His weight is not stated.



JIMMY GILL

La Crosse, Wis., welterweight who meets Stanly Darcy at Champaign, Ill., Nov. 22.

DANNY KRAMER BEATS EDDIE KID WAGNER

Philadelphia. — Two knockdowns turned whatever tide there was flowing around the ring posts at the Arena November 5 in favor of Danny Kramer over Eddie "Kid" Wagner.

It was one grand fight. In the very first round Wagner started out by staggering Kramer with a right cross to the jaw, and things were lovely—for Wagner. The second and third were fairly festive, but in the fourth Kramer let his left go and it found a fine place to roost on Wagner's jaw.

Wagner went down and stayed there for nine counts. He arose and started for his corner and Kramer soaked him again in the same place. Once more Wagner went down for nine more. After the bell sounded Kramer hit him again to show he meant it. And in the seventh, Kramer sent Wagner to his knees again.

That was enough to earn any man's decision. Except for those knockdowns it was a rip-snorting battle with things even enough.

Harry Kid Brown, who is endeavoring to succeed Lew Tendler as Philadelphia's leading contender for lightweight honors, outboxed and outhit Freddy Jacks, the veteran Australian fighter, in a bout which went the eight round limit.

Young Bob Fitzsimmons, son of the ancient and freckled one, ran into trouble in our midst when he appeared in the third bout. Yonug Fitz met trouble in the person of Ad Stone, our ambitious ex-Marine, who weighed 174 pounds against 186 for Fitz. And it was a terrific battle. In the second round Stone staggered Fitz with a right to the jaw and opened an old wound on the nose. Both bled freely, and Fitz tried to throw his weight into the battle to keep Ad from getting in a good smack at him, but Ad earned the decision despite this.

BUCK JOSEPHS NOW WITH JERSEY JONES

New York—Buck Josephs, the crack Nutley flyweight, and champion of New Jersey, is now under the management of "Jersey" Jones. Josephs is recognized as one of the foremost contenders for the world's flyweight title, held by Pancho Villa. The speedy little Nutley lad has defeated such prominent boys as Larry Goldberg, Sonny Smith, Terry Miller, Vincent Salvadore, Frankie Jerome, Petey Mack, Hilly Levine, Georgie Vanderbilt, Wilbur Cohan, Mickey Walters, Spark Plug Russell, Sammy Cohen and Nat Pincus. Besides Josephs, Jones also is handling Ray Pryel, crack Pittsburgh lightweight; Jimmy Vallon, promising Newark lightweight; Tony Palmer, hard-hitting New York featherweight, and Marty O'Hara, Pittsburgh's latest bantam sensation.

STANLEY DARCY TO MEET JIMMY GILL

Champaign, Ill.—Stanley Darcy, former welterweight champion at the University of Illinois, who recently turned professional to pay his way through college, has been matched to fight Jimmy Gill of La Crosse, Wis., ten rounds here November 22. Darcy, who is now under the management of Mike Gibbons and Mike Collins, has been training at Gibbons' gymnasium in St. Paul and learning some of the finer points of boxing science from the former famous Phantom.

Firpo to Have American Handlers in His Next Try for Title

New York—Fed up on mistakes which caused the heavyweight crown to slip out of his fingers and which almost lost him a country, Luis Angel Firpo is going to confine his counsel to United States talent in the future.

The big Argentine is returning to this country next spring and he is going to campaign for another fight with Jack Dempsey. American talent will arrange the campaign, handle him through the "build up," train him for the fight and back him in his corner.

Before Firpo sailed for home recently he was said to have looked over the list of mistakes made by him and by his handlers, the worst of which was the application made for American citizenship papers, and he decided that he had been led into rough waters.

His decision to accept American counsel was confirmed partially when Billy McCarny announced that he and his partner, Hugh Gartland, had been engaged to arrange at least 12 bouts for Firpo next summer, leading up to a return engagement with Dempsey. McCarny and Gartland handled Firpo's exhibition tour last summer and apparently he discovered that they had no desire to knock him off as a contender.

Although no announcement has been made by Firpo, it is understood from a reliable source, that he is going to retain Jimmy De Forest as his chief adviser and retainer when he returns.

SOUTH AMERICAN KAYOS FRENCH HEAVY IN PARIS

Paris, France.—Quinton Romero-Rajas, a Chilean fighter, removed another obstacle from his chief objective, the French heavyweight championship, when he sent Eluerè, France's ranking No. 3 boxer, crashing to the canvas with a pile-driving right to the jaw after thirty seconds of fighting in the second round of a contest that was to have been for twenty rounds here Nov. 7. In the absence of "Battling" Siki, only Marcel Nilles and Georges Carpentier now stand between the Chilean and the top of the list.

Romero stands six feet, one inch. His weight was announced at 198 pounds. The Chilean carried the fight to the Frenchman from the sound of the gong.

Eluere reached the chin of the South American with several hard rights, but Romero took his punishment gamely. His style of fighting resembled somewhat that of Luis Angel Firpo, in that his left hand was practically useless as an offensive weapon. He seemed always willing to take a punch in order to land his right.

The first round was about even. In the second Romero rushed from his corner like a wildman. Both men swung rights which landed at the same time. Romero took the Frenchman's blow, but the Frenchman went down like a log. He managed to regain his feet at the count of nine, but the Chilean sent another right to the jaw just as the sponge was thrown into the ring. Eluere had dropped under the impact of Romero's fist, however, and was dead to the world.

Romero still has lots to learn about the fine points of the boxing game, but the experts are of the opinion that if he succeeds in educating his left, his lion-hearted courage and wicked right will give him a chance against the best heavyweights of Europe.

KID ROY GIVES JOE STANLEY BEATING

Montreal, Canada—Kid Roy, claimant of the featherweight championship of Canada, decisively defeated Joe Stanley of Philadelphia in a ten-round bout here. Stanley was saved by the bell from a knockout in the sixth round. In the seventh he was floored again for a nine-count and he fought the last three rounds staggering around the ring, out on his feet. Young McNaughton, Quebec bantamweight, defeated Mickey Delmont of Newark, N. J., in six rounds.

FREAK FEATHERWEIGHT CARRIES KAYO PUNCH

Boston, Mass.—Carl Courtney, Tulsa, Okla., featherweight, surprised the fans here by knocking out George Pangraze of Boston in the fourth round here November 7. Courtney has a freak build, being 5 feet, 11 inches tall and having a reach of 78 inches. Out of 29 battles he has scored 19 knockouts, won nine decisions and fought one draw. He has never been knocked off his feet.

They Say Harry Wills Has Lost His Punch But None of the Other Title Contenders Want to Test It

New York—Funny thing about poor, decrepit, old Harry Wills, the melancholic Uncle Tom of Fistiana.

They say Harry can't fight a lick; can't hit, can't box, can't "take it," can't get out of his own way, isn't game and all that sort of thing. Yet this shambling old wreck of the ring can't get work from the white boys who are blowing about what they would like to do to Jack Dempsey.

Wills probably could get some matches if he would agree to take a thin dime for his share and promise not to spank. The promoters all want him to pack their houses, but the lads they pick for him to fight want all the money.

Those are the reasons why Wills, one of the three outstanding heavyweights in the world, is fighting for pork chops instead of apartment houses.

The other night over in Newark, Wills staged his semi-annual slaughter of Jack Thompson, a big, tough Negro veteran.

Thompson is one of the toughest men in the ring. He can absorb an amazing amount of punishment, but otherwise he is burned out and can't hurt anybody with his punches.

Wills knocked Thompson out in the fourth round and immediately his detractors declared he had lost his punch or he would have stopped his man in the first round.

If Harry "goals them" quickly, they are "setups"; if he plays with them a few rounds, he is no good himself.

Very well, but if we are any judge of the gentle art of fisticuffs, Jack Thompson took more punishment that night than Luis Angel Firpo, a bigger, younger fighter, did from Dempsey last September. Aside from Firpo we do not believe there is a heavyweight in the ring today—Dempsey not excepted—who could stand up under the mauling that Wills subjected Thompson to.

English Promoters Are Seeking Heavyweight to Fill British Title Vacated by Joe Beckett

Jack Bloomfield, light heavyweight champion of Great Britain and Frank Goddard matched for premier title—National Sporting Club will stage competition in effort to find likely big fellows who may provide a champion—Van der Veer, Dutch champion, fails to impress

BY THE BOXING MAJOR

LONDON, ENG.—The retirement of Joe Beckett from the British heavyweight title has created a situation likely to cause some trouble. Already Major Wilson has fixed up a bout for the vacant crown, selecting Jack Bloomfield and Frank Goddard to battle on Nov. 21st. The claims of the former are not open to dispute very much, as he already holds the cruiser title, and it is common knowledge that he can no longer make 175 pounds. His last performance in the ring against Dave Magill was not very convincing, but I fancy the Irish champion would get a surprise if he met Bloomfield again. The cruiser champion badly wanted a contest with Joe Beckett and would probably have been accommodated but for the Carpentier engagement which lingered over the best part of six months.

The selection of Frank Goddard as a candidate for the premier title is being freely criticized in many quarters. He held the title for two weeks away back in 1919, but his form since he lost it to Beckett is not encouraging, and the fact that the light hitting Australian, George Cook, outpointed him last April does not elevate him into a title contender.

The National Sporting Club have made no move to find a successor to Beckett, but when they do it is probable that Dick Smith will be one of their choice for the honor. The club is again out hunting for likely big fellows, and in a few weeks will promote a novices competition open to the whole country. These competitions have at times brought to light future champions, but always in the lighter classes. The poor class of the big fellows this side was shown again when Van der Veer, the Dutch champion, clashed over 15 rounds with the lanky Arthur Townley. It was the Holland boxer's first appearance in this country, but he did not impress much. He is built on Firpo lines and weighs as much as the Argentine walloper. He carries a terrific punch, that had it connected would have quickly put Townley to dreamland. As it was, he failed to create an opportunity of sending home an effective wallop and after an uneventful bout the referee declared a draw.

* * *

There are two other titles vacant over here, but both will probably be filled before the new year. In the welter class we have several struggling for title recognition. Fred Archer is well in the running and keeps in form by boxing at least once a week. Two recent victories include a 20-round points defeat of Maurice Prunier, the French ex-champion, and Frankie Burns, who claims the 160-pound title of Australia. A good brainy fighter, Archer will most likely contest for the next Lonsdale 147-pound belt that the club puts up for competition and indications point to Joe Rolfe as his opponent. The latter is one of the club's competition winners and has done well since he first appeared at England's premier club. His weakest point is defense, a weakness that he will remedy before he battles for the title. Ted Lewis may claim to be considered for the belt, but we have to be convinced that Ted can make 147 pounds now. He has been fighting in the middleweight class so long that it is almost forgotten that he was the last to fight for the welter crown.

* * *

The other vacant title is the flyweight, left open by the retirement of Jimmy Wilde. Two aspirants in Frank Kestrell and Billy Morris clashed at the National Sporting Club recently, Morris winning on points in 20 rounds. The winner is a sturdy little chap hailing from the Liverpool district, and he put Kestrell to the boards several times during the bout, though not long enough to seriously affect the Welsh candidate. We shall have many flyweight bouts before two suitable opponents for the belt are selected. There are two more good boys in Wales, whilst Plymouth is reported to have a lad worthy of title honors.

Harry Mason and Ernie Rice will battle for the European lightweight title on Nov. 21st, providing that Mason is not beaten by Seaman Hall beforehand. Hall lost the title to Mason on a foul during a scrambling bout and has been clamoring for a return match ever since. Recent events point to the Seaman being ill-advised to attempt the lightweight limit, but he fancies he can still fight strong at the weight, a notion not shared by the writer and others. Whether Mason beats Hall or not, it is highly probable that he will lose his title to Rice on Nov. 21st. The ex-champion is back to his best form and will surely be too strong for Mason, who is not a great champion, though speedy on his feet.

Andrews' Ring Gossip

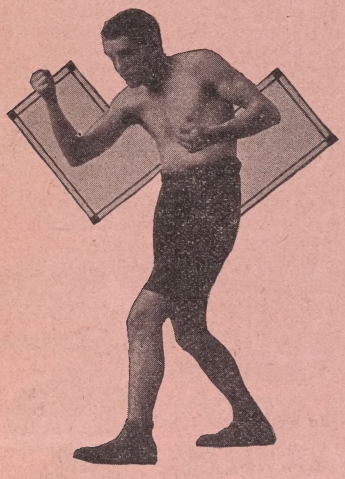
Polo grounds in New York. Luis was fortunate to have such a crowd at an exhibition. In most cities of the U. S. A., an exhibition bout would draw about 900 and probably less. It is claimed by Yankee sportsmen who have been in the far south that Rodriquez, who once defeated Firpo, is a much better boxer than the man who met Dempsey, and that Quentin Romero-Rojas, another South American, who beat Henri Eluere in Paris recently, is a still better man than either of the two above named. However, they are not worrying Dempsey, who says the more the merrier and also the greater the income.



STEWART McLEAN
St. Paul featherweight now boxing in California under direction of Manager Mike Collins.

Denver Boy is Socker

Buddy Hamilton, the promising young featherweight of Colorado, is hot on the trail of the Pacific coast feathers. Buddy had scored nineteen knockouts around Denver and Colorado towns, beating such good lads as Joe Mandell, brother of Sammy, Ray Talbert, Joe Kelley, Kewpie Callender, Sammy Freigher and others. And just when Buddy was nearing the top he had to hit the bumps by having the veteran, Harry Bramer, hand him a sleep producer in the ninth round of a ten-round bout. Buddy had Bramer beaten all the way and was talked out of it by the veteran. Bramer knew he was beat, but he finally induced Buddy to exchange wallops. Now Buddy knows better, but the knowledge came too late. Harry hung one of his famous right handers on the chin and Buddy saw stars. However, Buddy is young and will not fall for any more of the veteran's talk. After meeting the best of the coast lads Buddy and his manager, Sammy Buxbaum, will head for the middle west and east, being anxious to get a chance with Ernie Goozeman, who is fighting so well around Milwaukee and Chicago.

* * *

Gilbert Gallant, the Boston veteran lightweight, continues to make good in the four-round game around Los Angeles. Gilbert has had five battles within the past two months and has won every one of them. He may be getting a bit bald and is hitting around the 32-year mark, but he can still fight a lot better than many of the so-called lightweight contenders.

* * *

Stewart McLean, the St. Paul featherweight, is the latest arrival on the coast. He is another one of Mike Collins-Mike Gibbons stable of boxers. McLean may not be the cleverest of feathers, but he is a mighty nasty opponent in the ring for any of the stars. He can hit like a mule kicking and is always pressing forward, no matter how hard the going may be. There are some good feathers about the coast and Stewart will have plenty to keep him busy. The distance, four rounds, is what will probably bother him more than anything else.

BOXING NEWS OF THE WORLD

"RED" GRANGE, FOOTBALL STAR, WANTS TO BE RING CHAMPION

Chicago.—He's the greatest football player in the country, the mid-west believes. He's a human dynamo, a fiery furnace of activity, is Harold "Red" Grange, of the University of Illinois football team.

And he wants to fight Jack Dempsey. He conceived this ambition when he was in Wheaton high school and only 16 years old. He's 18 now and has improved in weight in the difference between 145 and 178. He has figured carefully that he will be a pretty fair-sized man when he reaches 22 or 23.

With his speed in action and his eagerness on the field he should make a great fighter, if he can learn the game and is taught and coached carefully in the tremendous amount of ring technique that he must have when he starts out.

Mike Cantrell of Wheaton, one of the best trainers in the country, discovered his fighting ambition.

"He's a wonder at everything a great athlete should have," said Cantrell. "He has boxed with me and never could be caught twice with the same trick. He can be made one of the greatest fighting men in the world if he keeps up his ambition to fight."

NEW ORLEANS FLYWEIGHT TO INVADE CALIFORNIA

New York.—Al Pettingill, New Orleans flyweight, will leave soon for California to campaign under the joint management of Eddie Mead and Johnny Cox. Mead and Cox have formed a partnership and have a long string of battlers. Pettingill claims he has won eighty-six battles in the South as a flyweight. He was discovered by Pete Herman, twice bantam champion.

New Orleans and Southern cities say that Pettingill is the greatest prospect developed in the South since the days of Joe Mandot and Pete Herman.

* * *

JOHNNY DUNDEE PLANS BOXING TOUR OF WORLD

New York.—Johnny Dundee is now going out after the long distance boxing championship of the world.

The featherweight champion's pursuit of opponents during the next two years will take him to every part of the United States, not to mention Great Britain, France and Italy, his manager, Jimmy Johnston, announced.

Dundee plans to fight once a week for 24 months. He figures on going through with more consecutive ring battles than any other boxer in the history of pugilism.

Furthermore, his barnstorming schedule provides for him to do battle in any one of three classes—featherweight, lightweight and welterweight.

After cleaning up in America—if all goes well—the Scotch wop will set his battered countenance toward England, where he expects to gather in a few championships.

Incidentally he says he had $25,000 as a side bet that he can lick Benny Leonard or Mickey Walker, the light and welterweight kings.

* * *

JACK DEMPSEY TO OWN STRING OF RACE HORSES

Mexico, City, Mexico.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, mining operator, real estate dealer and moving picture actor, is about to become a turfman with a stable of from six to eight horses, said James W. Coffroth, president of the Tia Juana Jockey Club, here.

The Mexican course opens on Thanksgiving Day. The initial purchase of Dempsey's racing venture, Coffroth added, would be a string of either six or eight thoroughbreds.

* * *

TOMMY KID MURPHY BEATS DANNY EDWARDS

Trenton, N. J.—Tommy Kid Murphy, son of the former 105-pound champion of the world, outpointed Danny Edwards, Pacific Coast colored boxer, in ten rounds here November 5. Murphy displayed wonderful boxing ability and his feinting, slipping and ring generalship had the colored boy baffled. Murphy kept stabbing and hooking Edwards with his left while he avoided the hard punches let loose by the latter in an attempt to overcome Murphy's cleverness.

* * *

JESS WILLARD BUYS NEW HOME FOR $40,000

Los Angeles, Calif.—Jess Willard, heavyweight champion of the world before Jack Dempsey took his crown away from him, has purchased a 12-room house in the Verdugo Woodlands near Glendale.

The reported purchase price was $40,000. The tall Kansan recently sold his residence on Crenshaw boulevard, where his family resided before he went East for his fight with Luis Angel Firpo.

* * *

EARL BLUE WINNER OVER NAVY ROSTAN

Waterloo, Iowa.—Earl Blue, St. Paul middleweight, won a newspaper decision over Navy Rostan of Joliet, Ill., in a 10-round bout here Nov. 8. Blue won nine of the 10 rounds, with the opening round even. Blue was the aggressor throughout the battle.

Albert Knipp of Waterloo scored a knockout over George Melich of Cedar Rapids in the third round of a scheduled six-round bout.

* * *

INJURY TO KEEP CRIQUI OUT OF RING 6 MONTHS

Paris, France.—Eugene Criqui, former featherweight champion of the world, so severely injured the bones of his right hand in his fight with Hebrans on October 6 that he will be unable to enter the ring for another six months, it is now stated. Criqui's fight for charity is costing him more than a million francs in the bouts he passed up in the United States and in his enforced idleness since his injury here.

* * *

JOCK MALONE OUTPOINTS PANAMA JOE GANS

Jock Malone, St. Paul middleweight, outpointed Panama Joe Gans of New York, claimant of the colored middleweight title, in ten rounds at St. Paul, Nov. 9. Malone's margin of victory was slight. Jock scored a near-knockdown in the fourth round when a right to the jaw tipped Gans over so that both hands touched the floor though his legs did not give way. The colored boy was badly shaken but had enough of his wits and strength left to stave off a knockout by clever defensive work and clinching. Gans almost evened the score in the tenth when he jarred Malone with several rights to the chin and cut a gash over Jock's left eye.

Al Van Ryan, St. Paul welterweight, defeated Eddie Morris of Sioux City, Ia., in the ten-round semi-windup.
